Soul on the Trail:

A Running & Renewal Journey in the Ecuadorian Andes

🌸 About the Retreat

The Second Spring: A Trail Retreat for Women in Transition

Location: Quito & the Ecuadorian Andes

Duration: 7 Days / 6 Nights

Dates: November 12-18, 2026

Focus: Gentle running, mindful walks, nature connection, self-care, and female empowerment during hormonal change

Level: Suitable for active women with moderate walking/running capacity
You are not slowing down – you're shifting.

This one-of-a-kind wellness retreat is designed for women navigating the powerful transition of perimenopause and menopause – a stage of life that calls for renewal, reconnection, and restoration.

Join a group of like-minded women on an empowering journey through the majestic Andes of Ecuador. Through mindful trail running, intentional walking, yoga, guided journaling, and moments of deep rest, we'll honor the changes in our bodies while embracing the strength and wisdom that comes with them.

This retreat is not about pushing limits – it's about rediscovering your rhythm, nourishing yourself through movement, and finding joy in your evolving identity.

🌿 What to Expect:

- Gentle trail runs and scenic walks in the highlands and cloud forest
- Wellness practices including yoga, stretching, and meditation
- Restorative time in nature and local spa therapies
- Sound healing and group reflection focused on relaxation and inner renewal
- Cultural experiences with Ecuadorian community
- Visits to condor conservation projects, and more
- Explore the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Quito's downtown

✨ This Retreat is For You If:

- You're feeling the mental, emotional, or physical effects of hormonal transition
- You want to move your body in beautiful, natural settings without pressure
- You're craving connection with other women in a supportive, non-judgmental space
- You believe that midlife is a new beginning – and you want to live it fully.

“Let the mountains hold you. Let your breath guide you. Let this be your moment”

Set in the peaceful Andean highlands, Hacienda Zuleta offers the perfect environment for rest, movement, and renewal. With expansive trails, cozy fireplaces, a wellness spa, and locally sourced meals, it's a sanctuary for women seeking balance during hormonal transitions.

Here, you'll enjoy:

- Gentle trail running & walking in open nature
- Massage and spa treatments to ease physical tension
- Time for reflection by the fire or in the gardens
- Visits to the Andean condor project and local community
- A deep sense of connection to Ecuadorian culture and nature

A place where your body feels supported and your mind can breathe – Zuleta is a highlight of your healing journey.

Cooking made with Ecuadorian love!

Inspired by the rich flavors of Ecuador, the retreat menu showcases fresh seafood, Andean grains, and tropical fruits, allowing you to savor the region's essence. Every meal is designed to complement your run, walk, yoga, meditation, and wellness activities, enhancing your overall retreat experience.

Meals are a blend of vibrant seasonal fruits, fresh herbs, and farm-to-table produce that awaken your senses and promote well-being.

One of Zuleta's greatest gifts is its farm-to-table cuisine. Meals are thoughtfully prepared with:

- Organic vegetables from the hacienda's garden
- Locally sourced proteins like trout, eggs, and farm-raised meats
- Fresh fruits and herbal teas to support hormonal balance
- Balanced menus designed to nourish, restore energy, and aid recovery after daily movement
